Press Release

On the afternoon of January 8, 2019 we developed information on a possible location of Revious Hamilton. It appeared that Hamilton was in the Bald Knob Arkansas area. We immediately contacted the White County Arkansas Sheriff's Office and provided them with this information along with the warrant and photo's of Hamilton.

White County Arkansas was able to identify Revious Hamilton along with another subject on video surveillance at a business in Bald Knob. White County was familiar with the other subject and was able to locate him and he provided the address where Hamilton was currently located. Deputies responded to that location and took Hamilton into custody without incident. Hamilton is currently being held in the White County Arkansas Detention Center and will be extradited back to Morgan County.

The Morgan County Sheriff's Office followed up on all information received from the onset of this investigation and dedicated countless hours to the apprehension of Hamilton. Deputies, Officers, and Troopers conducted several building, ground, and 2 aerial searches as well as saturation patrols in the days since the incident.
